Financial Obligation

ALA is limited to 10 students in 2022-23. Thanks to ALA donors who generously underwrite the majority of program expenses for students, tuition for this year's program will be $500.

Please choose your preferred payment option:

_____ I will be responsible for the full cost of the program: $500.

_____ I would like to be considered for a scholarship. (Please attach a letter explaining why you should be considered.)

_____ I would like to fulfill my obligation using of a payment plan.

Many applicants raise their tuition from employers, friends, and other donors. Tax deduction forms for donations are available upon request. Tuition is non-refundable.

References

In order to be considered complete, your application must include letters of recommendation from the two references listed below. Your references may email their letters separately before the application deadline to: info@alaskapolicyforum.org.

Participation

The ALA program consists of eight sessions held in Southcentral/Anchorage monthly on Saturdays from October to May, from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm. Breakfast and lunch are provided. See the ALA webpage for current year dates. Sessions begin with a networking reception on the Friday evening before class commences. Participants are expected to do outside reading and work as assigned throughout the course.

Students are allowed one excused absence. Notice of absence must be provided in writing to ALA at least one week prior to the session that will be missed. Students will incur a $100 meeting fee for each unexcused absence. Absences may be cause for dismissal from the program. Tuition is non-refundable, regardless of graduation status.

If selected into ALA, can you devote the required time to this program? Yes No
